The case was thereupon registered, and it was specially posted for hearing at Bangalore the 22nd December 1947 (i.e., for to-day), and intimation sent on the 11th December alone (i.e., eleven days beforehand) to both the parties.

To-day being the day of hearing, the case was called at the appointed time for being taken for hearing. The Labour Association President, Mr. K. S. Ramachandra Setty, appeared on behalf of the Association and was present for the hearing. But, on the other side, the employer, or any representative on his behalf, did not at all appear in spite of previous intimation of the hearing date. I waited for three hours, hoping that the employer or his representative would appear for the hearing. But, it was in vain. There is no letter of excuse either, received from the Employer.

In the circumstances, it has to be said that the failure of the employer to appear for the hearing of this conciliation case in knowing one, and he is not willing to attend the conciliation proceedings and explain the position or come to a settlement of the dispute. As such, no agreement is possible.

The Labour Association President and representative, present, presses the demand, and urges that the non-appearance of the employer in person or by a representative, in spite of intimation of the hearing date, is tantamount to wilful disobedience or to a contempt on his part and that some notice may be taken or he should, by a warrant, be compelled to appear.

All things considered, it seems to me that no useful purpose would be served by further postponing this case and enforcing the attendance of the employer, and that the proceedings may be closed, treating the employer's non-appearance as an indication of his not being keen to come to a settlement of the dispute and declaring it as a failure of conciliation proceedings.

In the result, the proceedings have to be deemed as a failure, and I report accordingly.

I request that this report may be published in the Gazette, as required under Sub-Section 4 of Section 12 of the Mysore Labour Act.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

NAVANEETHAM,
Chief Conciliator in Mysore.
